

Job Title: Assistant Professor – CUHCC

Position Type: 80% - 100%

Location: Minneapolis, MN

This position will provide full-scope family medicine ambulatory patient care for a wide range of patients and conditions. Provide clinical precepting for medical students and residents on educational rotations at the clinic; also participate in didactic teaching and curriculum development and evaluation in areas of interest. Administrative and committee assignments as appropriate. Opportunities for faculty development.

Specific assignment allocations are negotiable depending upon chosen candidate's interests; initial assignments expected to be 70-80% patient care and educational activities, 10% faculty development, 10-20% administrative and committee assignments.

Required Qualifications:

M.D./D.O., completion of Family Medicine Residency, licensed or eligible for licensure in Minnesota, ABFP board certified or equivalent certification for family medicine D.O.

Preferred Qualifications:

At least two years of practice experience and at least one year of experience teaching/precepting medical students and/or medical residents.

